

MASTER IN

Global Bioethics

M.S.

School of Bioethics

The Anáhuac University emerged in 1964 with the fundamental objective of elevating the human and social condition of men and women in Mexico, through the comprehensive training of positive action leaders with values and social conscience.

MISSION

Contribute to the comprehensive training of positive action leaders and institutionally promote the development of people and society, inspired by the values of Christian humanism.

WHY THE MASTER

The School of Bioethics of Anáhuac University México, responding to the need to prepare experts in the field of Global Bioethics, and together with leading educational institutions worldwide, has developed a master's degree that reaches those professionals interested in Bioethics but who don't have access to a face-to-face master's degree.

THAT OFFERS

The online Master in Global Bioethics M.S. offers an outstanding global perspective of bioethics, taught by international experts with a high academic rigor. The program is for those professionals in the health sciences, philosophy, law, or any other discipline, who wish to acquire and apply the knowledge of Bioethics.

CO SPONSORED

The Master in Global Bioethics M.S. is a co-sponsored program in collaboration with: Ateneo Regina Apostolorum; and the UNESCO Chair in Bioethics and Human Rights, Rome.

THE OVERALL PURPOSE

The Master in Global Bioethics M.S. will train future professors, health care professionals, biomedical researchers, social and political agents with high academic knowledge and skills in bioethics. It will provide an integral formation in the field of global bioethics allowing participants to develop their professional activities, both in the private and public sphere, with social responsibility and grounded in a person-center approach.

GOALS AND SKILLS

Promote human dignity, human rights and duties in the field of life sciences and medicine as well as in social and political environments.

Study and researching about biomedical, philosophical, social and legal aspects of the contemporary important and cutting-edge bioethical dilemmas.

Develop capacity for interdisciplinary, international and cross-cultural dialogue to explore new solutions for the preservation and the improvement of individual well-being and social welfare.

The student will make decisions with philosophical and scientific reasoning, arguing to respect the life of the human person and his dignity from its beginning to its end.

Provide advice to hospital bioethics committees, as well as to ethics committees based on the principles of global bioethics.

GOALS AND SKILLS

Analyze with an interdisciplinary approach, the main dilemmas facing bioethics today.

Propose solutions to the main bioethical dilemmas that are presented through the methodology of global bioethics.

Justify the role that law, as a science, has over bioethics through the essential elements that make up its general theory.

The graduate will make decisions in his professional field in light of the medical foundations of Bioethics.

WHAT IS AN APOSTILLE?

An Apostille is a type of attestation in which documents are legalized in a particular format that is acceptable in all nations that belong to the Hague Convention. Apostilles authenticate the seals and signatures of officials on public documents. When certain public documents are to be used in a foreign country, they are required to be certified.

This certification, also called an authentication or apostille, validates official signatures. This certification ensures that public documents are valid within the country where the document was originally issued or notarized.

The apostille is to facilitate the global acceptance of the degrees and credits by employers, professional associations, other institutions, colleges, or universities around the globe.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN NOTARIZED DOCUMENTS AND AN APOSTILLE

Notarized documents are used only within the originating Country while in contrast, an apostille is used as a form of authentication between different countries. However, there are times when a document must be notarized before obtaining an apostille.

TUITION

The tuition works like this: there are 18 courses to obtain the master's degree it takes 2.5 years to complete.
Each course is $1000 USD

Eligible students may receive a discount of the tuition.
